GLADFIC!

WRITING FICTION
with Vanessa Gebbie

Residential from £590
Non-residential £400

Discount for Clergy & Students

Vanessa Gebbie's popular course returns for another year! Have you always wanted to write but never found the time? Maybe you have an unfinished novel that needs a fresh start? With Vanessa and a group of other likeminded writers, explore the elements that work together to create fiction. Spend time in a variety of workshops, learning where and how to find inspiration, how to create vibrant characters, voices and settings. Experiment with poetry and explore ways of shaping and reshaping your work. You’ll also have plenty of time to put into practice the new skills you have learned, and to discuss your own work and process with Vanessa in a series of one-to-ones. With an evening of readings with a special guest writer to be announced.

Vanessa Gebbie is a novelist, writer of award-winning short fictions, poet, editor and tutor. Author of 10 books, including Short Circuit: Art of the Short Story (Salt), she has taught for The Word Factory, The Arts Council, and for writing organisations in Italy, Sweden and Austria.
